COLORED CELEBRATION

At Pembroke January 1st Was Quite a Big Success.

New Year's Day was fittingly observed by the colored people of the county with an Emancipation celebration and farmers' conference in the chapel of the Pembroke Colored Graded School. The meeting was gotten up by Prof. C. L. Timberlake, principal of the school.

At the school building the program consisted of a splendidly prepared dinner and speech-making.

The chief speaker was Bishop Evans Tyree, of Nashville, who was born in slavery, and who has risen to a position of leadership among his race in the south. Bishop Tyree's address was full of good advice and encouragement to his people.

Other colored speakers were C. W. Merriweather, J. T. Whitney and S. L. Posey, of Hopkinsville; C. W. Gunn, Prof. Timberlake and others of this city. White speakers were County School Superintendent L. E. Foster and Hon. Frank C. Brown, of Owensboro. All the speakers touched upon subjects relating to the welfare and progress of the race.—Pembroke Journal.

Forest Notes

Test at the forest products laboratory, at Madison, Wisconsin, indicate that by the use of four additional nails in each end an increase of 300 per cent in the strength of canned-food boxes is secured.

Approximately 10,390 acres of denuded lands within the Forests were reforested in the fiscal year 1916. The total number of trees planted was 6,144,674, while 3,750 pounds tree seed were sown.

There were 134,535 more cattle and horses, and 630,337 more sheep and goats using the forests in 1916 than in 1915. This increase was in spite of large eliminations of grazing lands from the forests. It is accounted for by improved method of handling the stock and by more intimate knowledge of the forage on the ranges and their carrying capacity.

The number of fires suppressed on forest lands during calendar year 1915 was 6,224, as against 7,018 in 1914, and an average annual number of 4,459 during the past five years, says Henry S. Graves, Chief of the forest Service, in his annual report just published. While more than the average number of fires occurred the timbered area burned over was but 155,416 per acres, or 30 cent less than the average year for the period 1911-1915 inclusive. The average loss per fire was $60.41. Forty-four per cent of the fires were confined to areas of less than one-quarter of an acre.

Italy's Claims.

Since Italy entered the war she has conquered 1,200 square miles of territory, shortening her war front from 500 to 375 miles, with an aggregate of 1,875 miles of entrenched lines. War material is being manufactured by 2,179 Italian factories employing 469,000 workers, including nearly 73,000 women. The Austrian prisoners now number 85,000, the statement asserts.

FEAST IN STORE.

The Gladys Beulah Powers Company, of New York, is to appear in this city on the evening of January 26, under the auspices of the Virginia street Parent-Teachers Association.

Miss Powers herself is one of the best known and most versatile of entertainers, and the announcement of her appearance should assure a large crowd. The program for the evening is replete with novelties, and is as well unique in its consistent arrangement and well balanced interest.

It consists first of a Japanese Opera, charmingly costumed, with imported robes. On a thread of romance are strung gems of oriental fancy to which Miss Powers adds fresh lustre by her sparkling vivacity. In the selection from John Luther Long and other famous writers on Japan, all the poetic fragrance of the land of cherry blossoms has been gathered together, and the art and charm of the young artist are given full range.

The second part of the program consists of two divisions aptly called At Home and Abroad. The former begins with a monologue of a quaintly garbed old-fashioned child, interspersed with readings from the newest and most popular of children's books. The Gentlest Giant, by Anna Bird Stewart. Following this, Miss Powers gives several numbers, full of laughs, illustrating the modern girl, and amusing various types in attractive modern dress. The section named Abroad consists of songs and stories of several different peoples, Dutch, Scotch, etc., all accurately costumed and embodying the humor and fun as well as the national characteristics of the countries represented. The student of folk-lore will enjoy her performance no less than the mere amusement seeker.

The musical part of the program is charmingly emphasized, by Miss Gwyneth Sampson, who will take part. She is a magnificent musician.

SEEKS IDEAL AMERICAN HEN

Yellow Legs, White Plumage and Eggs Resembling Leghorn's.

New York, Jan. 5.—An ideal American fowl, in which will be centered all the good points of all the good breeds of hens, is the object of experiments being conducted by the United States government at its farm at Beltsville, Md. Harry M. Lamon, head husbandman of the government farm, has been working for the last five years on the new American product. He explained his experiments at the annual poultry show at Madison Square Garden.

According to Mr. Lamon, the new hen will have white plumage, yellow legs, red ear lobes and a moderate sized comb. In laying qualities and the size of its eggs, it will resemble the Leghorn. It will have as much meat on its body as a Wyandotte, Barred Rock or Plymouth Rock. The government farm, Mr. Lamon said, plans to have a big exhibit of the new hen at the poultry show next season.

Wealth Without Labor.

Thomas H. Swope, Kansas City multimillionaire, always declared that he never earned a dollar of his millions. "All I did," he used to say, "was to buy Kansas City real estate when people were anxious to sell and sell it occasionally when they were anxious to buy, but I kept the most of it. I just sat back and loafed, while the people of Kansas City worked for me, and built a great city and made me rich."

MEXICAN TANGLE UP TO PRESIDENT

Commissioners Believe They Can Accomplish Nothing Pershing to be Withdrawn.

Washington, Jan. 5.—All threads of the tangled situation between the United States and Mexico were held tonight by President Wilson. The American members of the Mexican-American joint commission made to him late today a personal report of their negotiations which have reached a deadlock and whether the conferences of the commission shall continue is a question which the president has added to those already under consideration, the determination of which will shape the administration's future policy towards the de facto government.

Although an authoritative admission to that effect was lacking, it became known that Secretary Lane, Dr. J. R. Mott and Judge George Gray, the American commissioners, considered useless further attempts to effect a settlement of questions at issue through the joint commission. They submitted to the president a written report of their failure to have ratified by Carranza the protocol providing for withdrawal of the American troops from Mexico and for a co-operative control of the border and asked him to decide whether they should continue their conferences, as suggested by Carranza.

At least one more conference with the Mexicans will be held.

SOME RADICAL CHANGES.

It seemed certain tonight that some radical changes in policy would be adopted soon by the United States. The president continued his consideration of the withdrawal of Gen. Pershing's forces, regardless of Carranza's attitude and the sending of Henry P. Fletcher to Mexico City to represent the government as ambassador. It is known that neither of these steps would be regarded as inconsistent by the American commissioners.

In anticipation that orders would be issued soon for recall of the troops, the war department has prepared a tentative plan of withdrawal.

If the Pershing expedition is taken out of Mexico it will be with the understanding that the American government reserves the right to re-enter in the pursuit of bandits at any time it may become necessary and that there will be recognized no right of the Mexican government to impose restrictions.

I will send my New Year letter. We are advancing in the new year as a new year indeed to most of us farmers. It is quite new to have good prices for their products and still newer to hear the money rattle in their pockets. It is a time every farmer is enjoying, for he feels like he had been blessed with good prices for the fruits of his labors. It is new to him to know that he can receive something for his work, because his work is the grandest in the world.
